

Swing the baton and let the sound of strong project management roar through...

... when you unite and guide some of the most talented graphic artists, construction engineers, stylists and programmers to compose the most amazing projects in the leading 3D multimedia agency of the North.

In the role as Swedish-speaking project manager, you will get to leave your distinct mark on how world-class communication becomes a catalyst for a pronounced growth that goes beyond the borders of the country where you will play a pivotal role to our clients in Sweden, especially.

With you in charge of exciting projects you will continuously motivate and engage your talented colleagues to become even better. We expect that you:

- Secure successful implementation of projects with top-satisfied clients and a strong economy. You will have the overall responsibility for 10-15 projects at the time in the magnitude 50.000 – 1.000.000 DKK. On every project you will collaborate with a team leader, a resource and a technical insight in the project.
- Organize client meetings, interview salespeople regarding project transmissions, estimate and compile budgets, contribute to the best establishment of teams, in charge of start-up meetings and develop time- and production schedules.
- Ensure that the communication and arrangements with clients are alpha and omega, where you, for instance, are frontrunner on picking up the phone before sending an e-mail so the clients will experience a consistent and professional service all the way throughout projects from all the involved parties at Cadesign form. In doing so, you will contribute to a remarkable increase in resales and additional sales and the business having reached its ambitious growth rate within the first 1-2 years.
- Are frontrunner in a cultural shift where a strong and solid collaboration across the 3 departments in Cadesign form (Sales, Interactive & 3D) is established and where service becomes a deeply integrated part of the entire culture.

Your potentiality, when looking forward a few years:

Over a period of 1-2 years you will develop into partaking a more strategic and sales embossed role towards the clients, where you, to a greater extent, will act as sounding board on the clients' businesses and their 3D-solutions. You will contribute to a growth in projects' size resulting in less minor projects. Cadesign form have an ambitious growth strategy which entails an increase in turnover by 2022 and the implementation of a world-class service culture. A growth strategy like this invites to exciting career possibilities if you manage to set the scene.

You presumably have a background in...

... the advertisement- or communications industry and have a commercial education. You have created results within project management and preferably have a digital mindset. Alternatively, you have a technical background and have made your way to the role of a project manager. The most important aspect is that you have the right attitude, have a communicative impact and are top-motivated to lead the projects in Cadesign form successfully from start to end. Linguistically and culturally, you master Swedish to perfection, since you will be responsible for our Swedish clients.

Your new winning team!

With decades of experience and specialization in visual communication, Cadesign form delivers visual communication, film and digital solutions to a wide range of industries all over Northern Europe. We are approximately 80 employees and have a subsidiary company in Germany as well as a sales office in England.

On this exciting journey with growth on the agenda in Cadesign form, Sweden is an important market which is why Sweden has a dedicated salesman who is effectively opening the Swedish market. Together with this salesman, you contribute to leave your impression on a market in growth and make a remarkable difference.

You will enter an innovative and creative environment in a flat organization with room for different opinions, where you, to a great extent, will have influence on your own role in the organization and the daily routine. You will get to work with several of Cadesign form's clients in Sweden, which include large and acknowledged clients such as Electrolux, Hafa, Marbodal, and Monier – in addition to the exciting clients Cadesign form have in both Denmark, Norway, Germany and England for instance Danfoss, Grundfos, Louis Poulsen and BoConcept.
